CURT,

remember all the good times we had this year
fighting, borrowing money, collecting borrowed money, surfing and snaking each others waves, and in general being friends. "This is so serious!" Well I wish I was graduating with you because I will be a bumner being stuck in the MUHCD (Mission Uejo High Class Dump) Now when I'm a senior
I'll have to snake on all the women myself.

Ha.

Smiles That Warm & Cheer

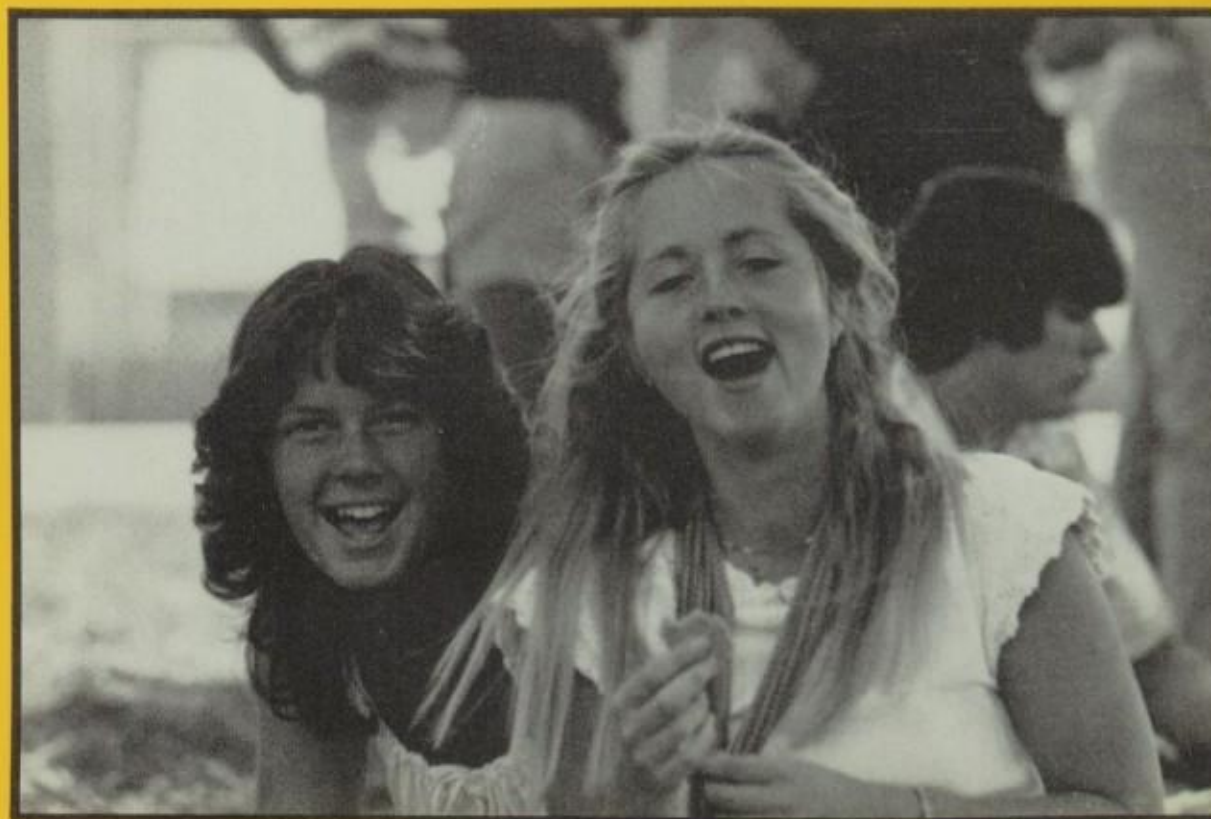

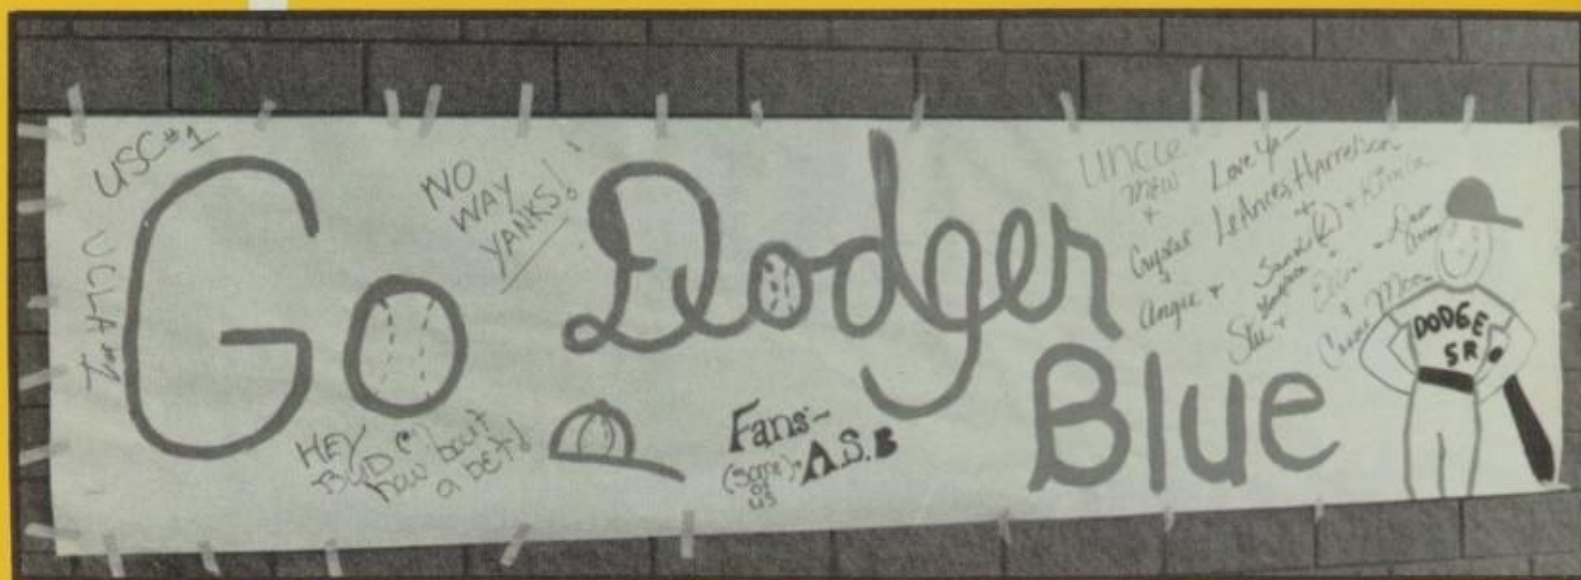

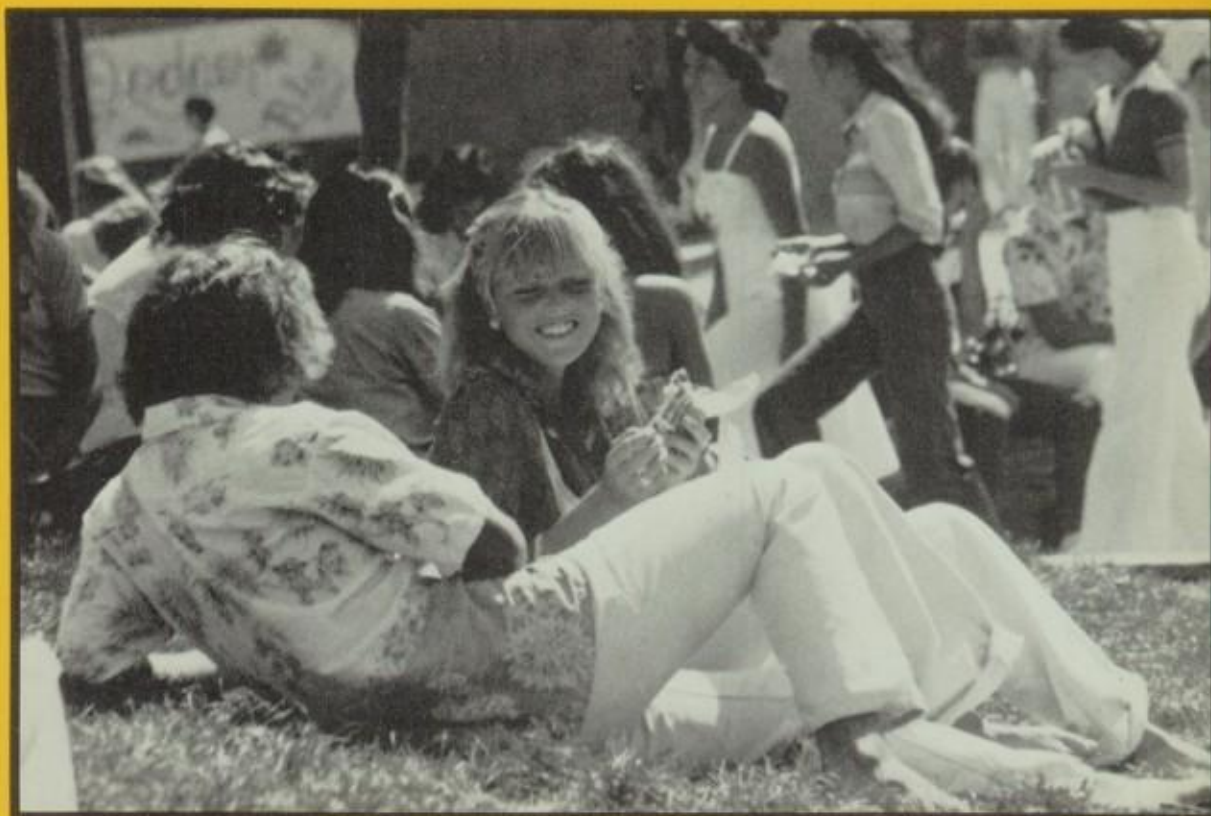

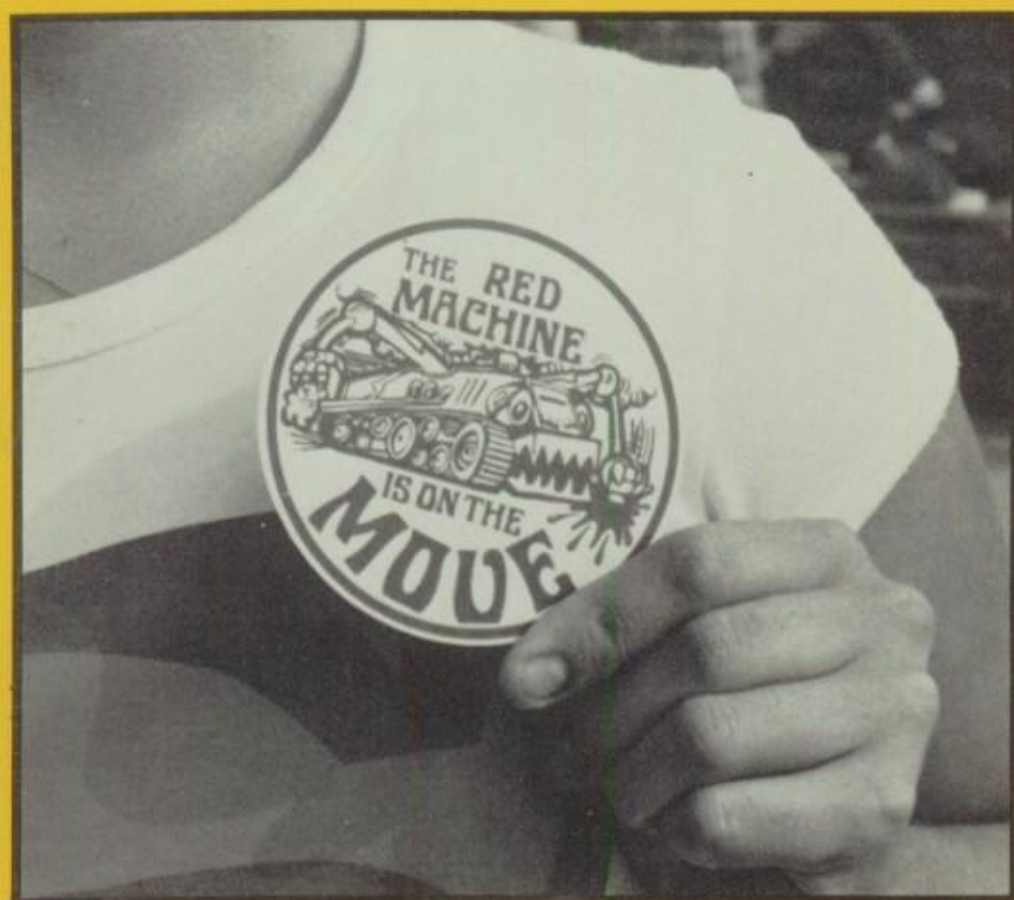

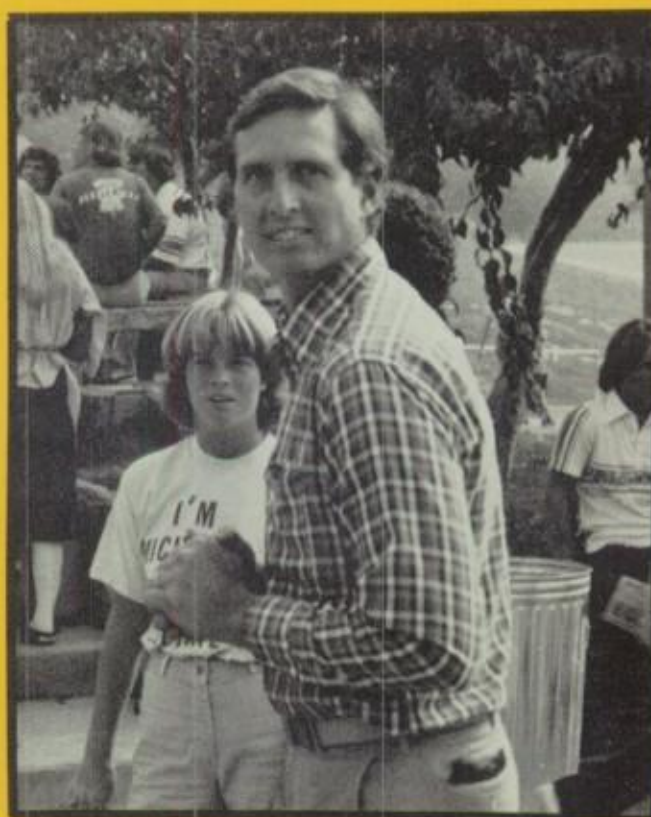

"A smile costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive, without making poorer those who give. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. None is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it, and none is so poor but that he can be made rich by it. A smile is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and it is nature's best antidote for trouble. Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed, or stolen, for it is something that is of no value to anyone until it is given away. Some people are too tired to give you a smile. Give them one of yours, as none needs a smile so much as he who has no more to give."

-Unknown

The El Viejo 1979 focused on smiles that warmed and cheered. Many different things this year made Mission students break into bright smiles: From the Go Dodger Blue poster to a Red Machine button; from being with that special friend to cheering the team on during football games; and finally, from having fun being part of a special club to receiving a smile from another person. Smiles certainly enhanced the great year we all had.

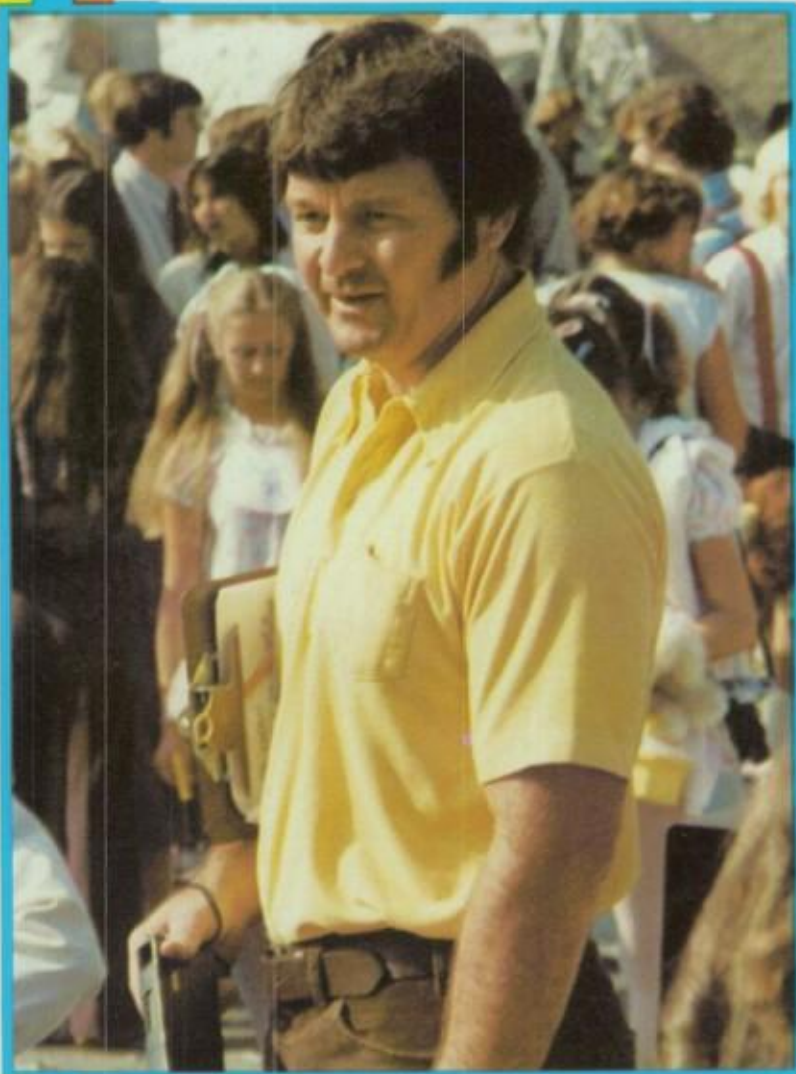

Smile on, Mr. Walters

Mr. Jerry Walters

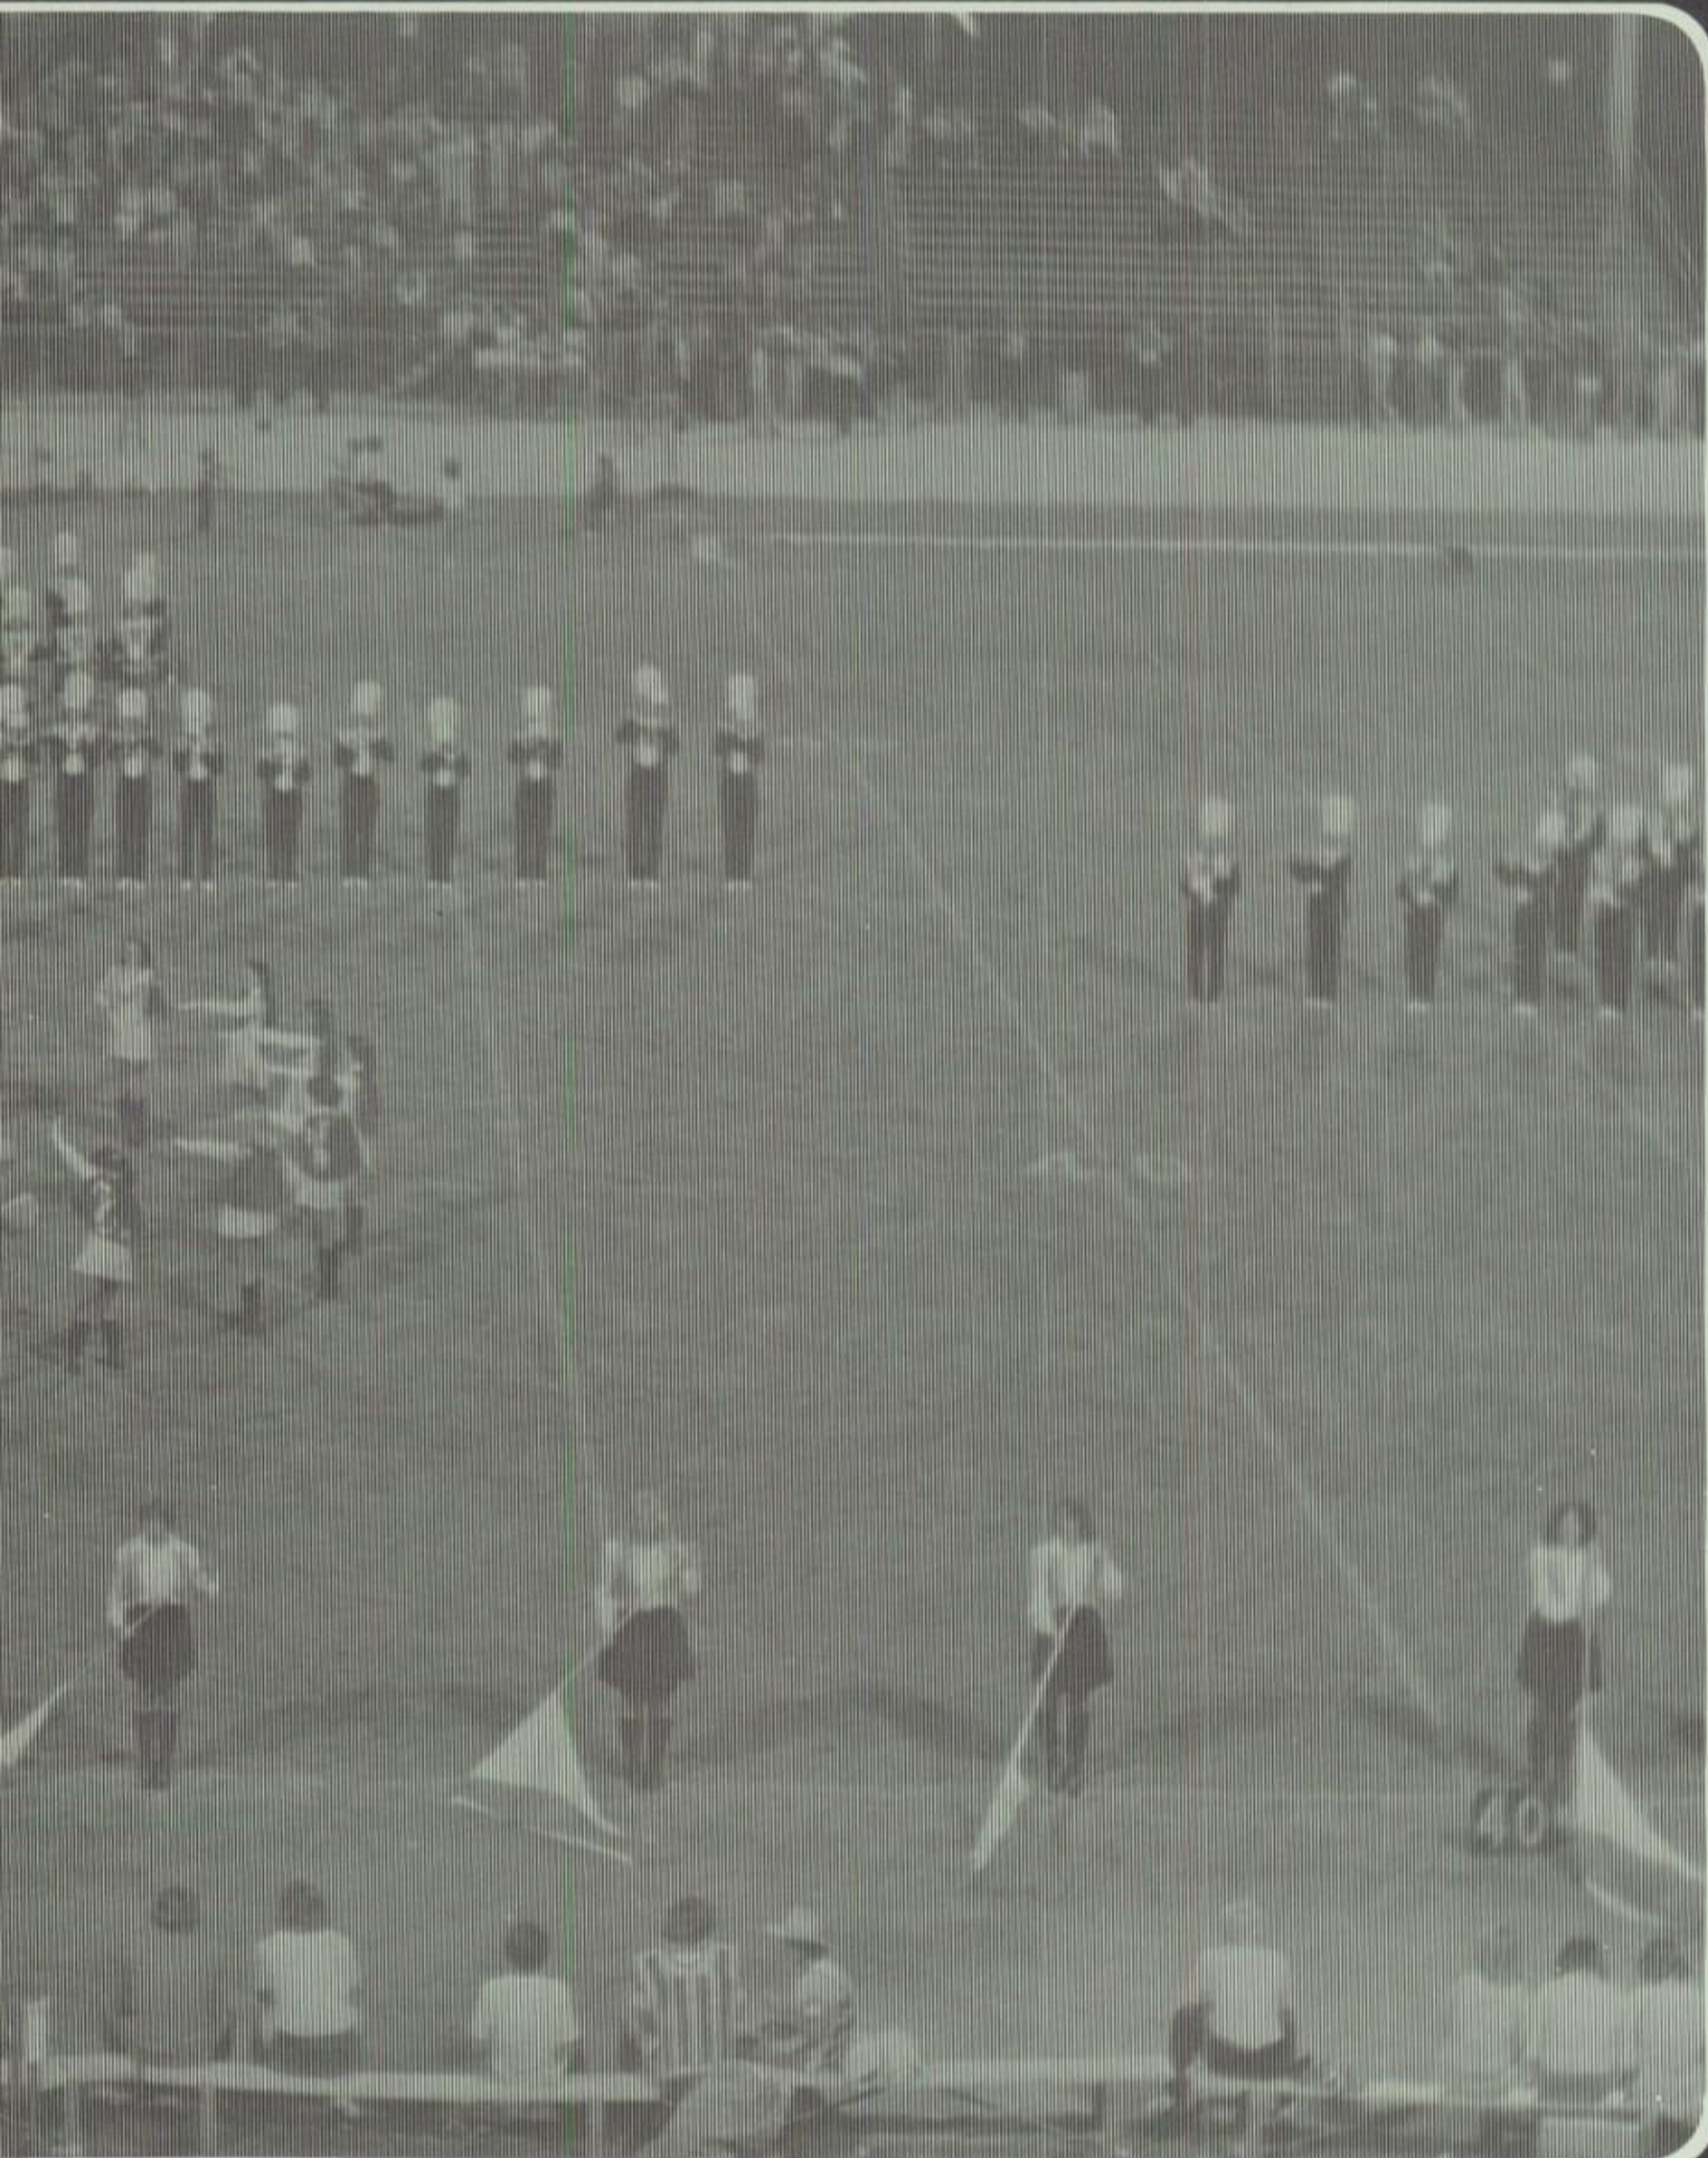

The Yearbook Staff proudly dedicates the El Viejo 1979 to Mr. Jerry Walters, a person who does have a smile that warms and cheers. He is a special kind of teacher who students may learn, confide, and laugh with. Mr. Walters is a teacher whose genuine interest of students has led him to become a class advisor, a coach, the head of the Driver Training Program, and as well as countless other extra curricular activities. He rises above the crowd because of his willingness to do more than the normal. Mr. Walters, your warmth and energy radiates wherever you go. Thank you for brightening the lives of everyone whose paths you cross.

"Twas the night before Baby Day and all through the school, the Seniors went crazy and broke every rule. The tree tops were decorated in a most unusual way, all to prepare for the on coming day. With diapers and blankets and bottles and pins, the students arrived with smiles and grins. Hopscotch and jumprope and a game of Redrover, and all too soon the excitement was over."

On October twenty fifth, the Juniors showed the rest of the students at MVHS what their hopes for their careers were. Throughout the day, doctors and nurses were busy reviving victims that had seen the Playboy Bunny, Marie Quinn, hop by. Father, Katy Lange, spent the day listening to the confessions of Sandy White, a pregnant nun, and countless thieves. Though there was a lot of participation during the dress up day, the Junior class came in last place for the weeks competition.

Homecoming Week, October 23 through the 28, as usual was full of the excitement of class competition. The battle began on Wednesday, when the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen dressed up. Though there were quite a number of costumes, the underclassmen did not out do the Seniors on Baby Day. On Thursday, most of the Seniors regressed into their second childhood for the last time, by dressing up like babies, playing "duck, duck, goose," and participating in games of Red Rover. On Friday, the four classes met for the final battle in the stadium. Here events such as the ice block melt, tug-a-war, the egg toss, the wheelbarrow race, and the pyramid took place. The fight ended with the Super Seniors as the victors. At the game Friday night the Homecoming Queen, Holly Hayes, and the princesses, Gail Moats, Lisa McDonald, Laurie Bauchiero, Kathy Jacobsen, and Kattis Levin, were announced. Saturday night the fun filled week ended with the first formal dance of the year, which took place in the gym.

This year, the underclassmen showed the upperclassmen that they had spirit, too. The Freshmen dressed up as mixed up sportsmen, and the Sophomores dressed as story book characters. During the class competition both of the classes yelled, and put up a good enough fight to beat the Juniors. The week ended with the Sophomores taking second place, and the Freshmen taking third.

Everyone will agree that Spirit Week was a great success. All through the week of October 25th, many events took place to see which class had the most school spirit. Classes were judged by the number of students who dressed up for their class, and points were given to teams who won the competitions held at the Spirit Assembly. Classes competed against one another in tug of war, an egg toss, wheelbarrow races, ice block sitting and pyramid building. Once again, the class of '79 Seniors took first place in the Spirit Week. Second place went to the Sophomores and the Freshman and Juniors were to follow.

"You Need Me" was the theme of the 1978 Christmas Formal which surely will remain a most memorable night for those who attended the dance. The dance was sponsored by the Mission Viejo Girls League and was held at the luxurious Marriott Hotel in Newport Beach. Christy Bjorklund and Bobby Cox reigned as Queen and King of the dance. "Water Babies" provided the theme for the float, upon which three water babies frolicked among playful fish and other marine life through a luxurious underwater growth of roses, irises, orchids, ferns and baby's breath. Many Mission Viejo High School students contributed to the creation of this float by spending much of their time decorating the float.

Throughout the school year, it was common for all of the students to attend an assembly during their fourth period class. At these assemblies, they witnessed such things as two grown men making noises like a roller coaster, a pantomime who made fun of various students and teachers, and of course, the basketball team performed their dance routine to King Tut. Not only were there assemblies during classes, there were also ones at night, such as; the Dance Performance, Beatle Fever, and last, but not least, the Midget basketball game.

It is a well known tradition of Mission High, that Friday morning a pep assembly will be held to spark the spirits of the students. On this day, cheerleaders and our athletes will probably be seen racing around in their red and gold uniforms, and campus walls are usually decorated with encouraging posters, all to remind one of this special event. At the assemblies, we are entertained with A.S.B. skits and cheers lead by the cheer squad. Such excitement is created to prepare for the "Big Games".

The members of the 1979 Prom Court were chosen for their contributions to the school. Though it was a difficult decision, the Jr. class council decided upon the following people: Craig Barker, Jeanne Beauprey, Dave Bush, Diane Giguere, Diana Harrelson, Ellen Kaplan, Bill Lapinski, Steve Levine, Marie Piscitelli, and Tim Strawthers. The dance was held on May 26, at the Registry Hotel, and the theme song was "Here we are." INSIDE MYHS

Yes, teachers do, do it! Not only do the students at Mission participate in the activities that occurred throughout the year, but the teachers did also. Many of the teachers were advisors of clubs, such as; Mr. Williams the newspaper advisor; Mr. Fennell, the Band director, and Mr. Hagopian, the yearbook advisor. The teachers have also participated in the assemblies which took place this year. Mr. Martin, Mr. Cunningham and many others played midget basketball, and Coach Murio let one of his players throw a pie in his face. Also, recognition should go to all of the class advisors, Mrs. Rixford, the Frosh. advisor, Mrs. Jurgemeyer, the Soph. advisor, Mr. Workman, the Jr. advisor, and Mr. Greco, the Sr. class advisor. Thank-you all, for making this year a memorable one.

"We are

Sometimes, I feel as if I'm stumbling through life on a road that leads me nowhere. Around each curve in this road and over and beyond each hill, a new and sometimes exciting, sometimes frightening challenge awaits me. Somehow, I accept each challenge with vigor and inner strength, which I thought I had lost long ago with my childhood fantasies. I begin to gain control of my steps slowly, awkwardly at first, and then I walk down that road with such a stride that one would have to run to keep pace with me. And the road becomes less rigid. The curves seem to have straightened out, and the hills seem to have flattened to level ground. And a light that once shone so far away, comes closer and closer with each stride, until at last, it is upon me. I feel a sudden swell of knowing that, which has never been taught, and of courage that has never, never been experienced. I become suddenly aware of a power inside me, that had been buried by a pile of defeats, which has now risen from its dismal grave and shed this light for me to see that I am unconquerable.

Thespians were as active as ever this year. They continued with their tradition of excellent performances as they put on "Dark of the Moon" and "Fiddler on the Roof." Their fall play, "Dark of the Moon", gained top placement with other county schools in drama competition. "Fiddler on the Roof" was their highly successful spring musical. Thespians supplied the school with some fantastic entertainment, along with fun and experience for the participants. Mrs. Vardanian supervised the budding actors and actresses, and they all had a rewarding year.

Theater And Scholars

The California Scholastic Federation gave college information to Juniors and Seniors who did well scholastically. Mrs. Coleman headed this group, and gathered information on colleges for the students. They received information on what courses to take during high school, and got advice on where to go after high school. This club was an opportunity for students to find out what goes on after high school so they can prepare themselves.

The Creators

The 1978-79 El Viejo staff worked throughout the year to produce this publication. We wrote inspiring copy and witty headlines, fought deadlines, and all kinds of problems. While we were sweating out deadlines, we constantly reminded ourselves that this pressure was going to be worth it. When we received this book, the final product, we knew that the work was not in vain. We hope you agree.

Both of these groups, along with the Treble Choirs, performed a Christmas Concert in the new Performing Arts Theater. Jazz Ensemble and Orchestra continued to entertain the school in their excellent fashion this year. The orchestra consisted of 22 students who worked during second period to put on several entertaining concerts. Jazz Ensemble rehearsed during third period. Both of these musical groups contributed much to the music department of this school, which was one of the best ever.

Mrs. Leonard was their new advisor this year, and did a fine job. It was a rewarding year again for the Mission Belles, as they contributed greatly to school spirit.

The Band

The 1978-79 Wind Ensemble

Under the direction of Mr. Fennell, Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, and Concert Band entertained students and parents in several performances this year. Marching Band is composed of students from all the bands in the music department. Under the direction of Mrs. Horn and Mr. Fennell, they performed for us at halftimes, and provided spirit at Pep rallies. The band performed in San Diego, and went to several parades throughout Southern California where they did well in competition.

CLASSES

“Hey Look, I’m A Senior!”

Look at that guy over there!

The determined look of a Senior.

Kim will do anything for a picture!

Me? A Senior! Of course.

Senior? What exactly does this word mean? Many people feel that a Senior is someone who has been through three years of high school and is currently in the last year. This is basically true, but being a Senior means much more than this. Looking back on our Freshman year, the threat of being "canned" was lurking in our minds constantly. When our Sophomore year came around, our inquisitive minds were still clicking; wondering if we were going to make it three more years. Becoming a Junior was the first step in assuming the role of an "Upperclassmen." Making it to this point assured us we'd be ready to become Seniors. So, now here we are, SENIORS. Where did the years go? These years were spent on maturing, learning, and most of all enjoying our years at Mission. These following pages are dedicated to the Senior Class of 1979. Now we can say, "Hey look, I'm a Senior!"

Kathy's warming smile.

"You've got to be kidding!"

There's a new tomorrow that exists to us now
And we have reached our time to expand
Beginning to realize the truth in life
And starting to mature in mind and soul
We are all alone once we leave this place
But always yearning to learn and to meet a new face

The Sophomores were aroused and cranked up in their forces to place second in Spirit Week competition. Many new drivers cluttered up our streets in their attempts to learn how to drive. This enthusiastic class of '81 is proud to have survived through its Freshman year, and it is soon to become Seniors. Let's hear it for a great group of people! '81 has just begun!!

"I wonder if he sees me."

"I thought I thaw a puddycat."

"We're off to see the wizard."

"We told her she could stop clapping."

At one point in the past year, a group of Sophomores were given a questionnaire to fill out. The first question asked was, "What is different about being a sophomore rather than a freshman?" Many people said that they know more about the school, and in addition, met more people. Another common answer was that there were many more privileges. In answer to the same question one person said, "For some people a complete social change takes place: taking notice of the opposite sex." The next question asked what the Sophomores liked about this school. Many people said they really enjoyed the athletics program, and the spirit involved with it. Also, most of the Sophomores questioned enjoyed having open campus. All in all, the Sophomores agreed that being a Sophomore had a lot of benefits.

1982

The wild world of sports.

Advisor Mrs. Rixford

Class Officers: Left to right: V.P. Kathy Gyske, Pres. Betsy Kenson, Kneeling: Rep. Andrea Basso, Treas. John McAdam.

The Freshmen might be small but they proved they were big in the spirit department. By beating the Juniors and coming in third in the Spirit Week competition, they showed that Mission can expect some great things from the class of 1982. Next year, when they are Sophomores, they will be relieved to be trashcanners instead of trashcannees. Good luck Class of '82 in your next three years.

A black and white photograph of a person sitting on the ground in front of a classical column. The person is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved shirt and light-colored pants. They are sitting cross-legged, with their hands resting on their knees. The background shows a large, fluted column and a tree trunk to the left. The ground is covered with dry leaves or grass. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Have you ever asked yourself, "I wonder what Freshmen think about MVHS?" Well, we asked them. The main replay was, "I like having open campus." There were also several other replies: "I like the chicks"; "There are lots of different classes"; or "the teachers are weird". One person said, "I was kind of lost in the beginning, but I like it here now." We hope all you Freshmen liked it here this year, and best of luck to you in the next three years.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

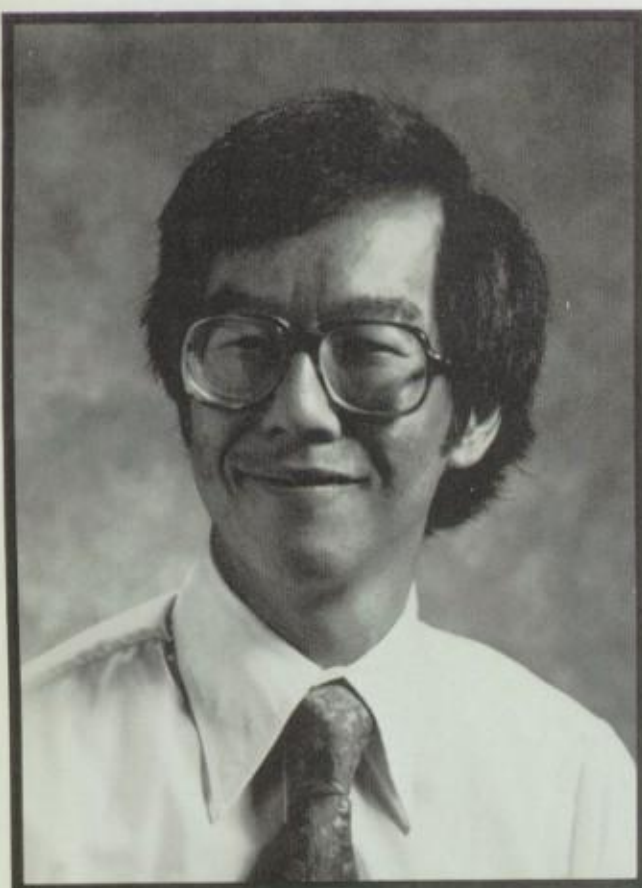

The 1978-1979 school year was characterized by student enthusiasm, hardwork and reward. The catalyst for these three elements was supplied by an active ASB Council presided over by President Walt McCallister.

Collective enthusiasm permeated the myriad of activities that were available to the ASB. This traditional support led to individual and league championships, academic excellence, and continued recognition by our community as one of the best schools in Southern California.

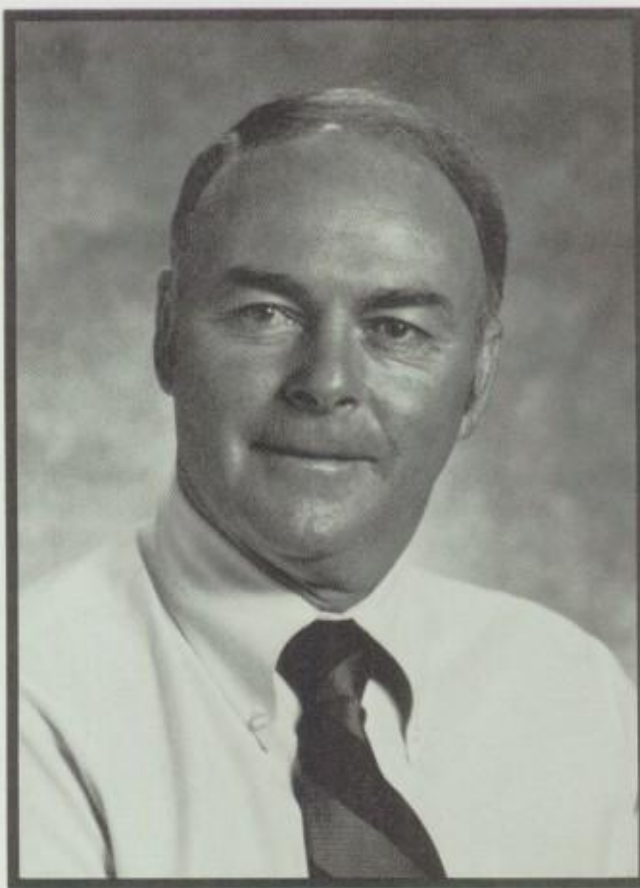

As you read the comments in your yearbook, now and in the future, I am certain you will come to appreciate your high school preparation at Mission Viejo. Hard work does result in rewards. You can be proud of your efforts and of your school. Good luck always.

With four minutes remaining on the clock and Mission down to San Clemente 16-6 it looked like the Diablo's most successful football season ever had finally come to an end. But no, Mission pulled off an overtime miracle victory and was to face El Dorado for the Central Conference CIF Championship under the lights at Anaheim Stadium. After finishing a disappointing season by taking only third place in league they entered CIF as extreme underdogs to face the number one seeded Esperanza. They shocked Esperanza 26-6 and then demolished Corana Del Mar the following week. The season of '78 will long be remembered as Mission's all-time best year in our twelve years of football.

Seniors Dave Duray and Kirk Bredeweg earned the very best of the team's records, while Grant Grothjan, Steve Bartlett, Dave Bush and Jim Burgess all compiled highly respectable records at their tournaments and matches. With only one loss apiece to go against twenty-five wins, Duray and Bredeweg promised to be very strong CIF contenders. Needless to say, "You've done it again Mission!"

All That Glitters Is Red & Gold

... and all that's red and gold glitters. Mission Viejo topped the league, all the teams were winners. Everyday after school they worked and strived, with winning the only thing in mind. They trained and practiced day after day, 'til they proved themselves at the Big A. The wrestlers once again were better than great, as Kirk placed sixth in state. The swimmers, well what can ya' say? again #1 in the U.S. of A. Basketball and soccer were among the best around, performing excellent in C.I.F. and taking the league crown. Volleyball, Baseball, Tennis, Golf, and Track, embarrassed rivals with their aggressive attack. Yes, sportwise 78-79 was quite a year, filled with victories, smiles, and competitive cheer.

Mission comes into second base.

Although winning isn't everything, Coach Schwartz showed the members of the Girls' Softball team that a winning attitude could take them far. This philosophy apparently succeeded because the girls slugged their way through a season of outstanding games which exhibited the precision and the accuracy necessary for a leading team. Whether guarding the infield or patrolling the outfield, each player contributed to the teamwork which is such an important ingredient of a successful season.

Gymnastics, although an enjoyable entertainment, was not a sport to horse around with. This year's Girls' Gymnastics team showed that grace, skill, and self-assurance were the key ingredients to a winning season. Coach Leonard, along with Coach Schwartz helped boost the morale of the girls through the use of their outstanding coaching skills. The unending hours of practice and the determination of each and every member to succeed attributed to the success of our Mission girls.

CHINOOK'S NEWEST STAR PERFORMER.

There's a new star on the horizon, and it's bound to get rave reviews from your prospects who want a mini-motorhome with first-cabin quality, room to sleep six and an affordable price.

ANOTHER FIRST CLASS PERFORMANCE.

Total performance has always been a big thing with us, and the Constellation is no exception. Our motorhomes out-perform the competition in several important ways. Because of the one-piece fiberglass shell, it's practically maintenance free. That means fewer warranty problems for you and greater re-sale value for your customer. The combination of its light weight and aerodynamic design lets it perform beautifully on the road and miserly at the gas pump. That's two of today's most important consumer buying considerations.

SENSATIONAL NIGHT PERFORMANCE.

There are five uniquely different floor plans available with plenty of variety in the basic configurations. One is the popular bunkhouse model. Each of the five have one thing in common...spacious sleeping accommodations, including a full queen size cabover bed with 32" of headroom, four smashing color schemes, and over 70 cubic feet of exterior and interior storage. In short, the Constellation was designed and developed for today's sophisticated consumer and dealer. It will generate enthusiasm and profitability for your dealership.

PREMIER PERFORMANCE AT MATINEE PRICES.

The final result is the most a motorhome can offer for the least amount of money, with a high yielding profit center for you.

Couple the excitement of the Constellation with enthusiastic Chinook sales and service representation, lots of advertising and merchandising support, and the Constellation is bound to be the star of the '79 model year!

The shining trophies on our shelves can never win tomorrow's game.
So you and I know deeper down
There is a chance to win the crown,
But when we fail to give out best,
We simply haven't met the test,
Of giving all and saving none
Until the game is really won.
Of dreaming there's a goal ahead,
Of hoping when our dreams are dead,
Of praying when our hopes have fled.
Yet, losing, not afraid to fall,
If bravely we have given all,
And so the fates are seldom wrong,
No matter how they twist and wind;
It's you and I who make our fates,
We open up or close the gates
On the ROAD AHEAD or the ROAD BEHIND.

CLOSING

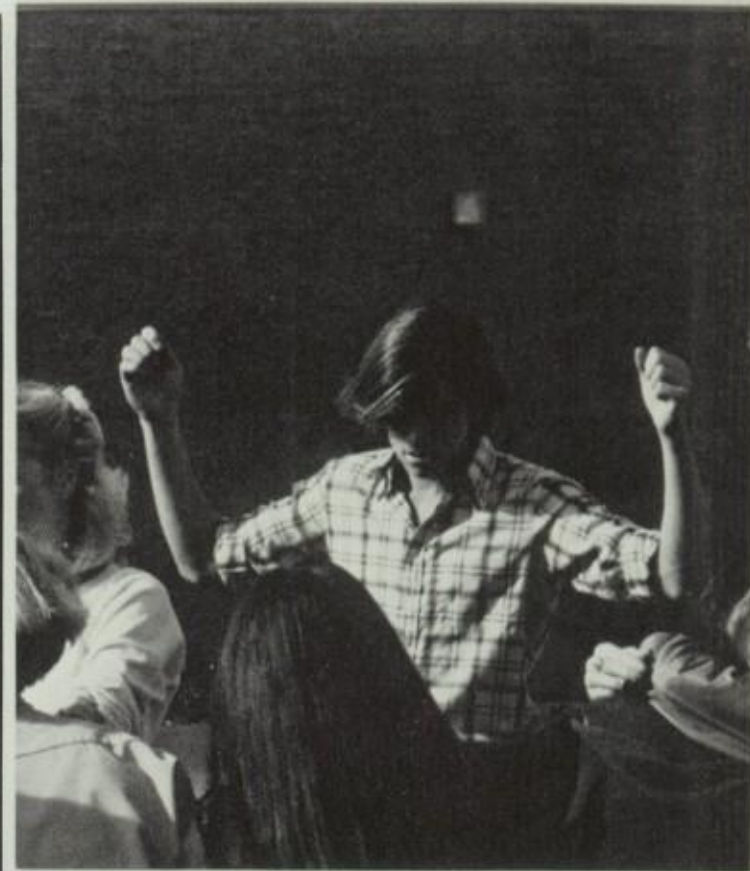

CLOSING

Lunchtime gathering.

"I feel so confused!"

What exactly was a Mission Day? Well to begin with, it was not only attending classes, studying, or seeing teachers. Instead, a Mission Day was a time to meet with friends who made you feel great. Friends met each other during snack, lunch, and even during classes. Catching up on the news or just having a plain old good time being yourself made Mission Days FANTASTIC!!!

Snack with the crowd.

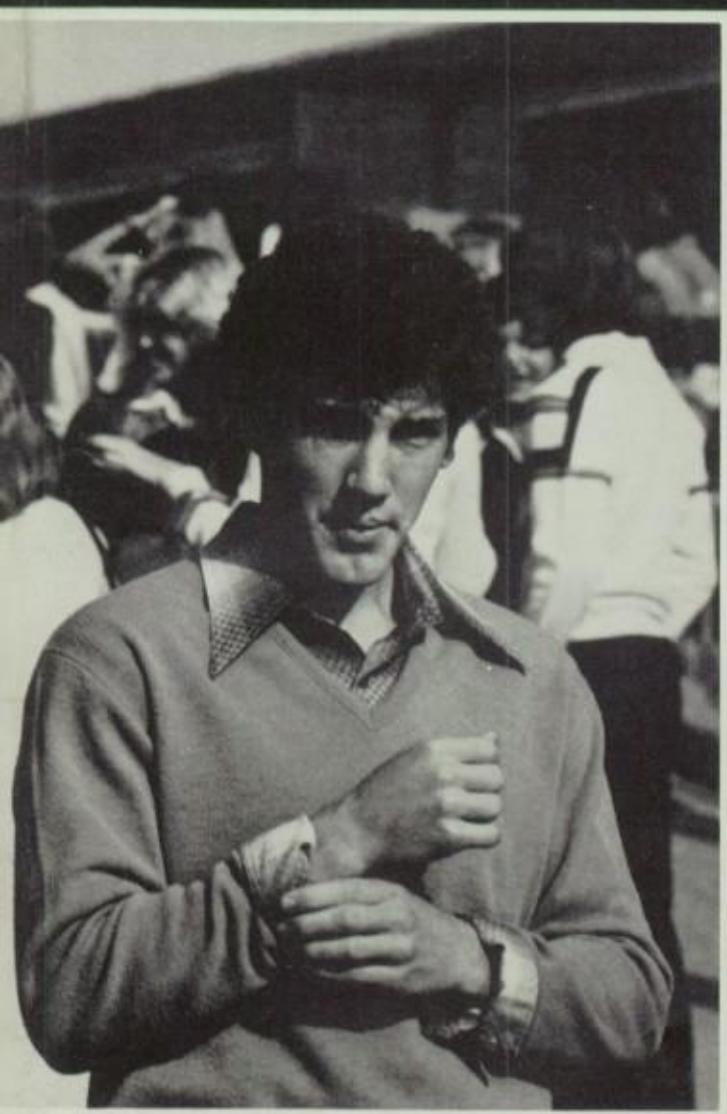

A Mission Day!

They look different, don't they?

Renee, with her future in hand.

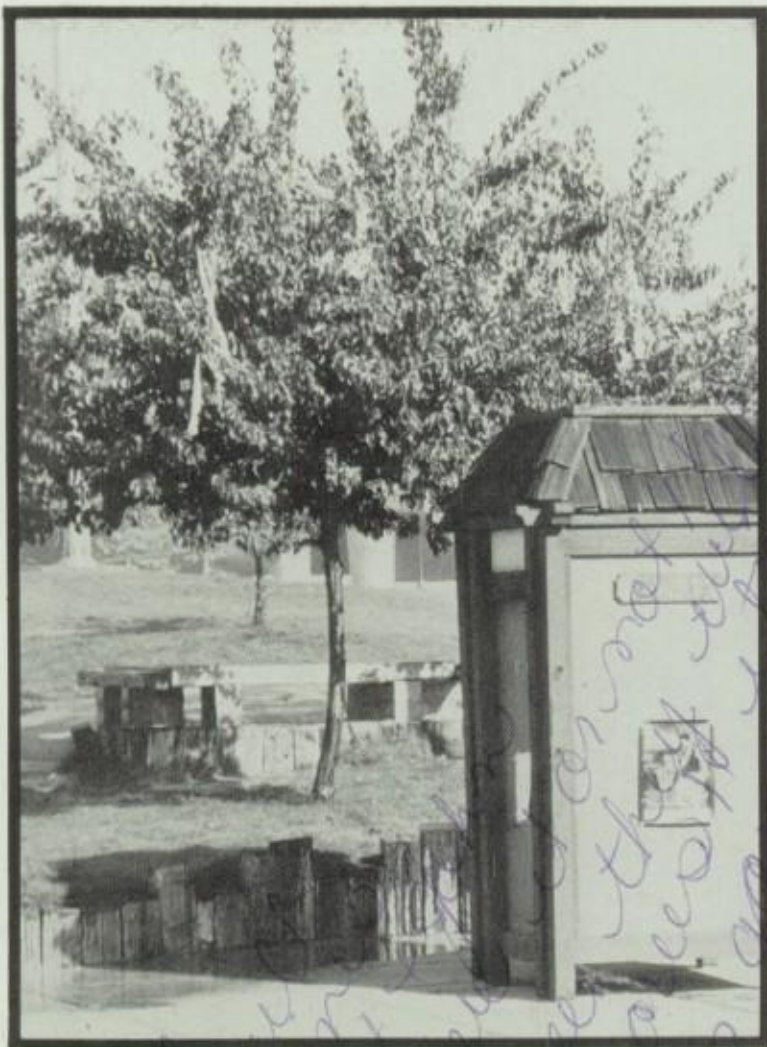

"Well, I might go to class."

Studying for a test in two minutes.

What Once Was ...

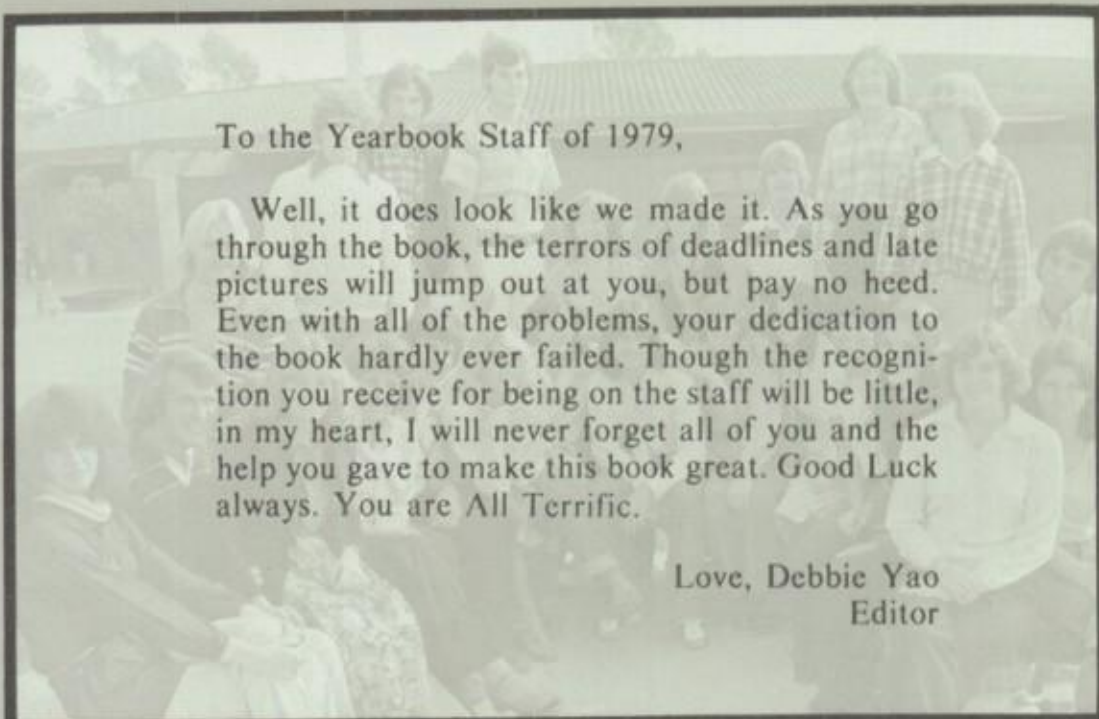

IS NO MORE

Victory Hill, a popular gathering place for many students, changed this year because seven trees on it were destroyed by vandals. Some people used to sit under the trees for protection from the hot sun. On the other hand, for the more tired students, a tree trunk was the perfect back rest. What once was, is no more. How true of life that things are never the same way. Many things that happened during the year proved this. First, with the completion of construction, the landscaping was again green and lush, and was not the usual dirt and mud. Also, many friends and teachers left to start a new school, Laguna Hills High, and resulted with Mission having a smaller student body. Finally, Proposition 13 caused summer school to be canceled and a shortage of school supplies, to the inconvenience of many. The year certainly saw many changes, with some for the better and some for the worse.

Another school year has ended, and time will be pushing us all on. The way life was in school, our own little world, can never be the same. Yet, all is not lost because the most valuable treasure remains . . . Memories. The many memories that have been saved by us will always be on hand to enlighten days in the future. Remembrances of meeting that special person, passing the hardest test in the worst class, or winning the important game all will bring smiles many years from now. On the other hand, the thoughts of not so happy times can always have the power to make tearful one who has long since grown up from the sad experience. The year indeed left us all with many memories to relive through the years.

Curt (Babe)

Well first of all I want to thank you for all of the great times we've had together. For the past four years that I really enjoyed being close to you and experiencing all the fun times we've had. The first time I saw you I thought you were the cutest and most sweetest guy. Now I've found out how you really are Curt you have taught me a lot of things that I'm sure I wouldn't have learned without you. You set me back on my own track not being someone who I'm not. I really appreciate all of those things you've done for me. Curt I'm sure I won't ever be able to repay all of the things you've given to me. But I'm trying as hard as I can to make you as happy as I am while with you. Curt I really love your family they are just like mine they are just the kind of family that you need. I'm so happy for you. You are so lucky. Curt I love being your girlfriend it's the most precious thing in my life right now (you). I hope we stay together for a super long time. I'm writing a long signature because I want you to remember me even in 10 years if we're a thousand miles apart I would hope we stay in contact. I know you're not leaving off to college at least for a while and I'm so glad you're not because I don't know what I would do without seeing you. The least I could go would be a week. And believe me that would even be hard. Well you have got to be one of the luckiest guys, why? You have everything going for you, a job, super mom and dad, great family. And great friends. You're graduating - a senior - I can't believe it. I wish I was up there with you. But you're gonna have to wait for me before you take off somewhere. Because I want to come with you. But if you do I wish you all of the luck, happiness, and I hope you would find someone as nice to you as you are to me. I'm sure you will find someone that's as sweet as you are because, I know you. Well Curt I know you have given me a lot of chances, because I've been pretty mean to you, well that means I just done some things you wouldn't ever do to me I just realized that and I'm totally sorry for it. I can't wait until we move. Right up the street from you we are gonna have so much fun. Living right next to each other. I hope! Well I can't even wait for our vacation we're gonna have a blast on the house boats. Babe I can't wait. Well how does it feel to be a senior you're so lucky. I'm so glad you get to graduate with the class - no offense but I'm just excited for you and also your mom is really happy. Well stay as cool as you are and I'll always remember you. I know I will. Well I'm sorry I took up so much room. But I just had to. Hope you - (WE) have a super. Bitchin summer I know we will if we stay together like we

one. So honey have a great future even if it's without me. Love you and I always will.
Thanks again for all of the happiness you've brought to me.

Love you

Susie
